Preface

RAD Limited was registered at Companies House on the 25th April 1995. As the RAD Hotel Group RAD Limited trades under the following titles:

- Carlton Hotel
- Dalmeny Park Hotel
- Hetland Hall Hotel
- Lochside House Hotel Lodges and Spa
- Radstone Hotel
- Royal Hotel
- Brig o' Doon
- Fairfield House Hotel
- Seamill Hydro Hotel

The head office is based in Cumnock East Ayrshire and hosts the support and sales functions for the hotel group including Sales, Marketing, HR, IT and Finance departments.

The Company currently employs 744 employees [PAY GAP TAB Pivot table] mainly from the local area. The workforce is made up of salaried, permanent weekly paid and zero - hour contracts.

The period for this report is April 2024 to March 2025. At the time of calculating the statistics for this document the company employed 744 members of staff. There was a split of 39% of male employees and 61% female employees during the report period.

Like many hospitality companies we have a diverse workforce and this year took the decision to move our pay bandings to pay above national minimum wage. Our main pool of staff is drawn from the West of Scotland, in Ayrshire, Lanarkshire and Dumfries and Galloway. RAD Limited may hereafter be referred to as the Company, RAD Hotels or the RAD Hotel Group.

Foreword

Robert and Vivien Kyle established RAD Limited in 1995. During the last 28 years they have worked tirelessly to build an award-winning hospitality business.

The Company has 9 Hotels across the South and West of Scotland: The Company's flagship property Lochside House Hotel Lodges and Spa located between Cumnock and New Cumnock, The Radstone Hotel: Larkhall The Carlton Hotel; Prestwick, The Royal Hotel: Cumnock, The Dalmeny Park Hotel: Glasgow and the Hetland Hall Hotel: Dumfries, Brig o' Doon: Alloway. Fairfield House Hotel: Ayr, The Seamill Hydro Hotel: West Kilbride

We used the HMRC formulae for the purposes of calculating the statistics produced.

Executive Summary

This Narrative has been compiled to support the statistics produced by RAD Limited in full compliance with the Government Regulations regarding statutory Gender Pay Gap Reporting.

The 'Narrative' will set out amongst other:

- RADs Values and the importance the company places on its presence in the local community.
- RAD Hotels gender pay statistics and the demographic makeup within RAD as reported from the Company's HR and Payroll System Fourth.
- The Mean and Median percentages for Male and Female Employees
- That there were no bonus payments for either gender during the fiscal year 1st April 2023 to 31st March 2024.

Scope and General Purpose

To comply with the government ruling on Gender Pay Reporting.

RAD Values and Company Culture

Our culture is simple and straightforward: We love what we do! Our mantra is to deliver the very best we can offer in food, comfort and service to our customers and for our staff, sustainable employment in an area of high unemployment.

We have 8 Values

NEVER SAY NO - This doesn't mean that we always say yes!

LONG TERM RELATIONSHIPS - Long term relationships are the foundation of our business.

FAMILY VALUES - Our humble approach inspires loyalty.

GIVING BACK - We believe in giving back and supporting our local community.

LISTEN TO OUR CUSTOMER NEEDS - Our customers come back because of our ability to listen to their needs and deliver on them every time.

SUSTAINABILITY - Our supplier relationships are very important to us, using local businesses, treating them well and staying loyal.

PEOPLE FIRST - People always come before profit.

VALUE - Our services and facilities are high quality and accessibly priced, giving our customers real value with affordable luxury.

Considerations

In accordance with HRMC statutory requirements the Directors will look at the pay differential as demonstrated in the mean and median figures. In its analysis we have established that the variance occurs among a minority of personnel at senior management level.

In the past 12 months the gender pay gap has grown within RAD.
