LOCHSIDE WEDDINGS

“A little piece of Scotland Exclusively Yours”

Tucked away in the Ayrshire countryside Lochside Hotel was originally built in the 19th century as a personal shooting lodge for the Marquis of Bute. Throughout the years it has grown in stature and now offers a majestic and spectacular setting.

The mature landscaped gardens, with the Loch of the Lowes and the Afton hills providing a wonderful backdrop, are perfect for your photographic memories. French doors lead out on to spacious patio areas and a wraparound terrace where breathtaking scenery can be enjoyed late into the evening.

Exchange your vows in front of striking views within the exquisitely designed Glen Caol Suite; boasting floor to ceiling windows, stunning chandeliers and impressive wall mirrored pillars.

Sip Champagne on the banks of the loch celebrating the start of your new life together.
